24. Public Prosecutors not to assist or instruct Assistant Public Prosecutor -

When Assistant Public Prosecutor appears for the prosecution in any case before the Magistrate Court, the Public Prosecutor or Additional Public Prosecutor shall not without the sanction of the Home Department, appear or assist or instruct the Assistant Public Prosecutor.

25. Procedure as regards filing criminal appeals or criminal revision applications in the High Court -

(1) The proposals for filing appeals in the High Court against the decision of Criminal Courts in the mofussil or application for the exercise by the High Court of its powers of revision in criminal cases arising against the orders of such courts shall be made by the concerned Public Prosecutor or Additional Public Prosecutor through the Director of Prosecution along with opinion for filing or not filing the appeal or revision application as the case may be to the Home Department. The concerned Public Prosecutor shall also forward along with them, copies of material parts of evidence and certified copy of judgment or order of the court, at the earliest.

(2) If the Government in the Home Department decides to file an appeal or an application for revision, the copies of Government Resolutions authorizing the filing of appeal or application shall be sent to the office of the Public Prosecutor in the High Court and the Director of Prosecution. It shall be the duty of District Public Prosecutor to forward the necessary papers to the office of the Public Prosecutor in the High Court without any delay.

(3) The memorandum of appeal or application shall then be drawn up by the concerned Prosecuting Officer and present it in the High Court, with the statement whether the accused person is in prison and if he is, in which prison.

(4) As soon as the appeal or application is disposed of in the High Court, the concerned Prosecuting Officer shall inform the Home Department and the Director of Prosecution of the result and as soon as possible shall obtain two copies of the judgment and forward one to the Director of Prosecution and the other with the papers to the concerned Prosecuting Officer who proposed for the appeal or Revision application.

(5) If the proposal for filing appeal or revision application in the High Court is made by the officer other than the Prosecuting Officer who conducted the case, the same shall be forwarded through the Director of Prosecution to the Government in the Home Department after obtaining opinion from the concerned Prosecuting Officer.

(6) In every case in which Government servant who is prosecuted in any offence in relation to his official duties, and is subsequently acquitted, the Head of the Department or the District Directorate of Prosecution shall as soon as possible after the case is decided, submit a report through the Director of Prosecution to the Home Department stating the facts of the case and also his opinion as to whether an appeal should be filed against the order of the acquittal. He shall forward along with such report, copies of the material parts of the evidence and a copy of the judgment or order of the court to the Home Department.

26. Procedure as regards defending appeals and Revision applications in criminal cases -

The proposal for defending in the High Court appeals against the decision of the criminal courts in the mofussil or applications for the exercise by the High Court of its powers of revision in criminal matters shall be made by the Director of Prosecution on the receipt of a notice from the High Court. He shall also forward all the necessary papers of the case in consultation with the concerned Prosecuting Officer who conducted the case, to the Government in the Home Department. The Home Department then shall give necessary instructions to the office of the Public Prosecutor in the High Court for defending the appeal or revision application. If the time does not permit then the concerned Public Prosecutor, High Court shall defend the appeal or application as the case may be and report the matter to the Director of Prosecution under intimation to the Home Department.

27. Monthly return to be sent by the Public Prosecutors to the Director of Prosecution -

(1) All the Public Prosecutors shall send a return as per the Schedule D to the Director of Prosecution in the first week of every month without fail. When there are no cases to be entered in the return, nil return shall be sent, without necessary certificate in that regard.

(2) The Public Prosecutor shall also before the 31st January of each year send a similar return giving the requisite information for the preceding year.

28. Rules for the grant of legal assistance to Government Servants -

(1) The assistance which Government may grant to its officers, who have to institute or defend criminal proceedings in respect of acts done by or purported to have been done by him in discharge of their duties, may consist of -

(a) engagement of Prosecuting Officer to appear in such proceedings on behalf of the Officer concerned; or

(b) reimbursement to the Officer concerned of all the expenses towards fees incurred by him in such proceedings to the extent of fees payable in such proceedings to Prosecuting Officer under these rules.

(2) The Government servant who intends to institute or defend such proceedings and is desirous to obtain assistance from the Government must immediately refer the matter to his official superior who in turn through proper channel shall refer the matter to the Government in the Home Department.

(3) In the cases in which Government itself prosecutes the Government servant for offences alleged to have been committed by him in his official capacity and in which such Government servants acquitted, it will be desirable to reimburse to him the expenses towards fee incurred by him to the extent mentioned in sub-rule (1)(b) above defending himself instead of engagement of Prosecuting Officer.

29. Powers to relax :

The Government shall have powers to relax any of the provisions of these rules, as the facts and circumstances may require.
